ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

The following correspondence is self-explanatory. You will oblige me by publishing the same.

C. HENRY WHITE.

Honolulu, Dec. 18.

HONOLULU, H. I., Dec. 11, 1895.

A. M. BROWN, Marshal Republic of Hawaii.

Sir—There is a rumor in circulation in Honolulu at present, and which has been in existence for many months, that I am, and have been, employed in the secret service of the Government. As this is untrue I ask you to be kind enough to give me a denial of it in writing. You alone can know that I have never been nor am now in such employ.

This report has been a considerable hindrance to my prospect of employment and in many other ways has caused me great annoyance.

I have to the present time simply tried to "live the matter down," but as I have learned that a man named Osmer, in an affidavit made by him on February 14th last, which has been used officially by the Hawaiian Republic, states that he told Mr. E. B. Thomas that I was employed in the secret service, and that according to his own language, was "giving you fellows away"—whoever they may be—I must now ask you for a distinct contradiction of this, as it is well known that Osmer was in the employ of the department of which you are the head.

The insinuation in this man Osmer's affidavit that I was working or taking any part against the Government is absolutely untrue. I took the oath to the Republic of Hawaii in August, 1894, my letters of denization are dated September 7, 1894, and I am not ashamed of either. I have never had nor have I now any inclination to oppose the present Government, nor can anything ever influence me to do so.

I ask you therefore in your capacity as head of the Police Bureau to state officially in writing that I have never been on the payrolls of your Department on any other of which you have knowledge so that I can publicly contradict these false statements.

I do not ask this for any reason of enmity or animosity to yourself or the Department, or to our Government, but simply because it has injured me, (and will continue to do so), to be classed as a spy or one who has at any time given information of any kind to the police authorities.

So in justice to myself I ask that you will certify that I have never been engaged in any such work.

I am, sir, yours truly,

C. HENRY WHITE

MARSHAL'S OFFICE,

HONOLULU, H. I., Dec. 11, 1895

C. HENRY WHITE, Esq.

Dear Sir: In reply to your communication of this date requesting me to certify that you are not in the employ of this Department, I beg to state that I am willing to do so and do hereby so certify that during my incumbency as Marshal, you have not been in any manner connected with this Department and to the best of my knowledge you were not so connected prior to my appointment to such position.

Yours truly,

A. M. BROWN,

Marshal Republic of Hawaii.

The Emperor's Travels

William II., the German Emperor, probably travels more than any other nonprofessional traveler in the world. Between the 3d of September, 1894, and the 2d of September last he spent no less than 195 days en route, which is even less than in 1893-94, when he was 199 days on his travels. The remaining 170 days he spent in Berlin or in Potsdam.—Exchange.
